This question is answered by re list second of the 6th Article of the statute con-crump betteam. That section provides that "the median Judge of the County Court, the Clerk, and that its members assured no authority, and that its the sheriff, or other officer acting for him at an elec-tion, shall constitute a board for examining the poll-marks of each county and giving cortificates of elec-decided right; and we are ratisfied that ulus-'enthr on. And the spointed some person to conduct the election. The result cannot be doubtful. The Administration De whole scope, lenor, and spirit of the statute preclude morracy will be annihilated forever.

Where will the editor of the Democrat be in the ducting the election or acting as a member of the examining board. But, even if the statute furnishswaring, at least to himself, this oft-repeated questhat hisgowan was, not withstanding his candidacy, a member of the examining board—if ingentity could work out a plansible pretaxt for such a conclusion what apoly go has the Damocrat for asserting that the declined to act without course? The cause is should be done as to the admission of Kanras in the third declined to act without course? that he do lived to act without cruse? The cause, in inevit tile event of her rejecting Lycompton acthe blased, predetermined judgment of the Deno-crat, may be insufficient, but that he declined to act without any known cause the Democrat knew was not the fact; and all unbiased mon will say that he had no right to act, or, at least, that his ground for many the fact is accomplise.

THE ADMINISTRATION POLICY IN LUNION --It is well known that the Buchanan administration, some what no right to act, or, at least, that his ground for the fact is accomplise.

We are now propored to judge of the value of the Semocral's opision respecting the action and decis-on of Means. Clement and Matlack. If, without este its denutciations of Mestra. "acted with usaged authority —not merely that they erred in the identity in the present struggle in Illinois—ahows that it recommends a struggle in Illinois—ahows that it recommends a pers, frankhlently acting to premote party ends. They otisurable for failing to discharge a plain official duty. If they bud failed to act, perhaps the whole election would have been abortive, for the statute of the election. That the anti-Lecempton Bemocrats does not designate who shall not in case they fail; were abolitionists, and eight not to vote for Revill? and thus the whole community might have been sub-jected to the annoyance of another election ering cancted to the annayonor of another electionsering canass of a x weeks. No-Messrs, Clement and Mat. crats, s) called, have cut themselves off fores lack were tot usurper; they were right in acting as nthers of the examining board. Whether they ecided aright the question or questions which came voted to show that their decision was probably right, and we shall bereafter add a few suggestion the same point; but whether their decision is right or wrong they were not usurjers. The judge who lacidas a case wrong does not thereby usurp author ity. He is invested with authority to decide ver honest and enlightened he may be, he will often decide erroneously. To err is human; and he ascrising to a judge corrupt motives for every errosone opinion le may give. We have now even that the board for exam the potls was legally and properly constituted. It sted of the presiding judge of the county co and the two justices who reside nearest the court-bouse. The next inquiry is what was the authority of the beard? The Democrat save:

shall "compare the polls, ascertain the correct of the enuming up of the votes, and give tripli more written certificates of election." The staiute, then, designates three duties to be performed by this board, whereas the Democrat enumerates only (see, First, it must compare the polls; secondonly ton. First, it must compare the polls; secondby, it must ascertain the correctness of the summing up of the votes; thirdly, it must issue certificates of alection. It can no more neglect one of these duties than another. It must sxamine and compare the polls. It is called in the statute a "board for examining the poll books." Het how can it compare the poll lacks until it first ancertains whether the lacks presented to it are really poll books?

The lacks presented to it are really poll books? he books presented to it are really poll books? When the board meets in the place designated by we have clerk's office, it finds there certain books—which the board is required to compare cannot be ascertained without examination. I'indoubtedly the board is not required to assume that every book, which it finds in the clerk's office, purporting to be a poll book, is in fact one. We admail, with the Democrat, that this board has no right to decide on the legality of the votes returned or go behind the poll books and invotes returned or go behind the poll books and inquire into the regularity of the election or whether all the officers of election performed all the duties required of them; but we do insist, what no man of common sense can deny, that the first documents are considered to the sillient ever believed by the common sense can deny, that the first documents are considered to the sillient ever believed by the common sense can deny, that the first documents are considered to the common sense can deny, that the first documents are considered to the common sense can deny, that the first documents are considered to the constant of the const
